

Jaguar 722.6

 IMPORTANT NOTE ***

Before ordering a 722.6, you must determine the correct casting number for your application!

You will need to verify the last 4 digits in the top row of the casting numbers, located on the valve body near the linkage. Please see RED ARROWS above for location and detailed image of casting numbers.

In addition, please note that the part number shown below refers only to the Jaguar version of the 722.6 valve body.

If you require a Mercedes or Chrysler version of this valve body, please refer to the appropriate catalog section for further details and part numbers!
